All festivals for 2020 are now cancelled.

As far as possible the English and British Finals will move on a year but that all is all in the lap of the Gods.

Groups that have worked so hard on their festival entries this year will have the opportunity to re-submit their same production again next year.

The Geoffrey Whitworth competition is still going ahead - entries must be in by the end of April - details can be downloaded from the 'documents' page.

We are also accepting any original scripts that were due to be performed this year onto our 'new scripts' page - details on how to do this are again on the 'documents' page.

As soon as we have any definite news we will be in touch - meanwhile - keep safe
